

Greystone Institute Cancellation and Refund Policy - Student & Provider Default

Cancellations and withdrawals are subject to the conditions of the Greystone Institute Refund Policy.

Student Default

A student will be deemed to have defaulted where the student cancels their course, does not start on the course commencement date, and/ or fails to notify Greystone Institute in writing of any circumstances that may affect their enrollment or their ability to comply with the Terms agreed in the Application Form.

Starting the program on time is the student's responsibility. If the student arrives late for the start of their course, no refund is given for the missed days.

Withdrawals

- If a student chooses to withdraw from Greystone Institute, they must give Greystone Institute written notice and leave Greystone Institute on the date they have agreed to withdraw.
- Greystone Institute will make sure that students can sit down and talk with an appropriate person within two days of their withdrawal request.

Refunds

- Refunds will normally be given when students cancel before their course begins, according to the Tuition Refund Policy.
- Students may apply for a refund by completing a withdrawal/cancellation form and submitting it to Greystone Institute at the time of cancellation. Refunds are processed within 4 weeks of receiving the notice/request from the student.
- Any refund will be paid to the person or entity that originally paid the course fee, where possible, in the same currency in which the fees were paid.
- All bank charges incurred for refunds to be paid by the beneficiary.
- No refund will be given for notification of withdrawal which occurs after the start of the program.
- No refund will be given to students who are expelled for breaching the college's policies, for unacceptable behavior or for international students on a student visa -non-compliance with visa conditions.
